Coasters coast to victory

The Coast to Coast Coasters coasted to victory in the annual Crazy Day bed races held Saturday afternoon. The Coasters came from behind in the first heat when the other team's bed fell apart about 20 feet short of the finish line. Then the Coasters, who were clocked with the fastest time in the early heats, took a break and watched the other teams fight one another off to reach the finals. In the finals, Coast to Coast protected its best time while edging second-place Cunningham Crusade. Windom State Bank finished with the worst time of the event, qualifying for the worst team award. Above, the Cunningham Crusade, left, went neck-and-neck with the defending champion Coasters, right, in the opening race until their bed collapsed just short of the finish line. Members of the Cunningham Crusade included, from left: Lee Cunningham, Dennis Purrington, Anne Cunningham (in bed), Tom Christensen and Jeff Gilbertson. Members of the Coasters included, from left: Tim Dibble, Ted Horkey, Beckv Krause (in bed)

Poncin receives probation, jail

Gary Poncin, 50, was sentenced to 10 years probation and six months at the county jail with one month of straight time and the remainder with a work release, by Judge Harvey Holtan in district court Monday.

In addition, Holtan required Poncin to pay a $2,000 fine with a $200 surcharge. Poncin must undergo a treatment program for sex offenders as well as any recommended aftercare or counseling.

Poncin pleaded guilty to a charge of criminal sexual conduct in the first degree. He had been charged with having sexual contact with a male juvenile over a period of about three years beginning in the fall of 1981 at Poncin's residence.

His first court appearance was Jan. 23. Poncin was released at that time on $10,000 bail.

The charge carries a maximum penalty of 20 years in jail and a $35,000 fine.

Conservation sign-up end

By Jan. 1, 1990, all landowners farming highly erodible land need to have a conservation plan to reduce soil erosion and stay eligible for federal farm programs.

The Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) provides a way for those who farm highly erodible land to stay eligible and also maintain an income from such land.
