MEMO TO FILE OF BOB POMEROY

SUBJECT: SEXUAL MOLESTATION REPORT

From: Elwanda Edwards

To: Paul Ernst

On June 6, I spoke with [REDACTED] (His phone number is [REDACTED].) [REDACTED] had called to report that Bob Pomeroy sexually molested him 10 years ago while he was a Scout in the Coastal Empire Council.

The purpose of [REDACTED] phone call was to find out if Mr. Pomeroy was still employed by the BSA. He requested that this matter be handled with confidence.

After speaking with Joe Anglim, I spoke with [REDACTED]. I told him that Mr. Pomeroy no longer works at the BSA. His employment ended two to three years ago after a similar report was filed to the BSA. I also told him that Mr. Pomeroy cannot register in the BSA again and will not be allowed in the organization as an employee or volunteer.

I also gave [REDACTED] our address and told him that if he wanted to write the BSA about this matter, we will see that his letter is kept in Mr. Pomeroy's file.

Memorandum to the Confidential File:

Today in Savannah, Georgia, I met privately with [REDACTED], former Scout in the BSA council headquartered here. The meeting was arranged by Council President J. Stephen Lewis who is an Attorney at Law with Beckman & Lewis, [REDACTED] in Savannah. [REDACTED] is now 22 years of age and preparing to enter graduate school at [REDACTED] in [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] described his three-year relationship with Robert R. Pomeroy who was at that time Scout executive of the council here. The relationship began when [REDACTED] was about eleven and continued until he was fourteen. It ended when Pomeroy moved away, which was approximately seven years ago.

According to [REDACTED], he was given special attention and periodically would be invited to share the same tent with Pomeroy on camping trips and at outdoor events. Over time there was increasing physical contact such as hugging and stroking, and eventually Pomeroy would massage the boys's genitalia. After masturbating for the boy, Pomeroy would then do the same himself. There was never any oral copulation.

[REDACTED] stated that Mr. Pomeroy gave special attention to about five other boys, but he could not be sure that they had similar experiences, except for one incident. One of the boys came to him in tears while at camp and described a similar experience with Pomeroy.

[REDACTED] stated that this three-year relationship "messed up his life" and that he is currently undergoing counseling. Based on our frank discussion and from my observation, I believe [REDACTED] is telling the truth. I asked [REDACTED] for a signed statement and he is giving this consideration.)
