Dear Howard,

The item marked on the enclosed newspaper tear sheet, unfortunately, was an Assistant Scoutmaster in Troop 43 of our #1 District. The item was called to my attention today. The Scoutmaster of the Troop told the receptionist in our office several weeks ago to take him off as an Assistant Scoutmaster because he had moved.

I checked with the Commanding Officer of the State Police office and the only information he would give me was that it is a bad case and he is certain there will be a conviction when it comes to trial.

We feel he should be placed on the confidential list at this time.

Sincerely,

GILBERT S. TURNER
Scout Executive

Dear Skipper:

It was nice to have you with us at Hershey last month. Our plans for this year are moving along and I am sure we will make the 6.6% gain in membership.

But this letter has to do with one of those unpleasant duties we must act upon once in a while. I have just been given the following report from District Executive Dwaine E. Gipe:

"I met with Rev. [redacted] minister of Calvary Methodist Church, Sponsor of our Troop 6. He informed me that Scoutmaster Joseph S. Ettwein had five or six direct complaints upon his actions with the boys of Troop 6.

One father assured the pastor that he would testify to the church board if necessary concerning perversion.

The minister consulted with Joseph Ettwein on the situation and within a day or two the Scoutmaster resigned.

The minister is working with the situation on a counseling basis and hopes he may be of some valid assistance."

On the basis of this and other related information, I think we should put Mr. Ettwein on our Confidential List.

Cordially yours,
