FROM: Richard B. Marion
Scout Executive

Today, Friday, August 11, I spoke with Ms. Geri Stahr concerning an alleged child molestation act by William Bailey. It was reported to me that the accusation was made by [REDACTED] Philadelphia.

The alleged act was committed not while under the care of Bailey. Therefore, Ms. Stahr said that it was not reportable. I was instructed that if the investigation turned up a reportable incident (reportable meaning an act performed while the youth was under the care of the alleged perpetrator), I should then contact the 800 Hot Line Number. Until then, I have no obligation to contact the state.

RE: William Bailey
Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 7

On Thursday morning, August 10, 1989, I attended a meeting concerning an accusation of juvenile sexual abuse against William Bailey, Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 7.

Attending the meeting was Rev. Fred Barnaby, Pastor; Joel Barnaby, Associate Pastor; Policeman R. Gormley, II, Philadelphia Police Department; Jerry Parent, Scoutmaster; William Bailey, Assistant Scoutmaster; and myself. Location of the meeting was The Greater Church of Philadelphia, 2021 E. Allegheny Avenue, which is recorded as the Charter Organization of Boy Scout Troop 7. At this meeting, the following issues were discussed:

- 1) That a complaint had been filed against William Bailey alleging that, on August 8, 1989, oral sex was solicited from a youth. This boy is not a member of Boy Scout Troop 7.
- 2) That William Bailey has admitted to having "sexual difficulties" with boys over the past 5 years.
- 3) That, on August 8, William Bailey submitted his written resignation as Assistant Scoutmaster due to this problem. (copy attached)

Officer Gormley indicated that a formal investigation will be conducted. He asked the support of Philadelphia Council by providing him with copies of Boy Scout Troop 7's Charters from 1986 to now.
